

BETHUNE-COOKMAN
UNIVERSITY

The Association of Black Psychologists
Student Circle (ABPsiSC)

PRESENTS...

2016 Student Circle Conference: "Unafraid to Matter"

Hosted by the ABPsi Southern Region & Bethune-Cookman University

April 1-2, 2016

Bethune-Cookman University

Daytona Beach, FL

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

On the behalf of the Association of Black Psychologists (ABPsi) Student Circle, we would like to formally invite you to attend the Association of Black Psychologists Student Circle's 7th Annual Regional Conference themed "Unafraid to Matter" on Friday and Saturday, April 1-2, 2016, in Daytona Beach, FL at the Bethune-Cookman University. Features of our Student Conference include a welcoming ceremony, a keynote speaker, a graduate student writing boot camp, a game night, a think tank session and more!

For this conference to be a success, your participation is requested. One of the most important events at our conference are the student research presentations, because we the ABPsi Student Circle, recognize the value of our student-scholars and maintain a dedication to highlighting the important and diverse scholarship you produce.

If you are interested in presenting research at the conference symposium, please respond to our call for abstracts (see below) no later than Friday, February 26, 2016. Please note that submissions from both graduate and undergraduate students will be considered. Invited presenters will be notified by the end of February, to allow for ideal travel accommodations.

If you interested in participating but unable to meet this deadline, please contact the ABPsi Student Circle Research Committee ASAP via the information below.

Once your application is received additional information will be provided.

Thank you so much,

The ABPsi Student Circle Research committee

BETHUNE-COOKMAN
UNIVERSITY

THE ASSOCIATION OF BLACK PSYCHOLOGISTS STUDENT CIRCLE

2016 Regional Conference:

“Unafraid to Matter”

Bethune-Cookman University

April 1 & 2, 2016

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

DUE: Friday, February 26, 2016

Submissions MUST be complete and include the following:

- (1) Applicant(s) Contact Information: Name(s), Phone Number(s), Email Address(s), and Mailing Address(es).
- (2) Abstract Cover Sheet, which includes the title of the proposed presentation with authors. Please also indicate if you are submitting for a poster or paper presentation
- (3) A 250 maximum word abstract formatted consistent with APA guidelines. Please do not include any identifying information in the abstract.

The Association of Black Psychologists Student Circle will be accepting both poster and paper presentation applications. The symposium focuses on the presentation of the author's/authors' research study or paper and theory while gaining consultation from other peers to strengthen their research. In addition, participants will be expected to address any questions that may be posed by their audience.

It is strongly recommended that applicants address some aspect of the convention theme: “Unafraid to Matter.”

Applications can be emailed to: scresearch@abpsi.org

Please save this file as “CALL FOR PROPOSALS-[insert your name]” and return via an email attachment with “ABPsi Call for Proposal” in the subject line. Please include your name and collegiate institution in the body of the email.

*Acceptance/Rejections for applications will be sent via email by Monday, February 29, 2016.

**Submissions will be rated by a joint student member-professional member panel. Please note that paper presentation submissions may be considered for poster presentations, based on availability of slots. Presenters will be notified in this case**