

“Purpose, Racial Inequities and Identity”

“Teaching is done in many ways, above all by example. Teaching should be healing, and teachable moments provide the opportunity to share and exchange ideas, to teach and be taught, to be open-minded to understand what you do not know”

The 4th Ancestral and Racial Healing Conference

November 11 – 13, 2016 in Seattle, Washington

WHAT IS

THE ANCESTRAL and RACIAL HEALING CONFERENCE?

The Ancestral and Racial Healing Conference is the first to bring together, Black Psychologists, Sociologists, Educators, and Social Workers under one umbrella to provide an African-Centered Thought platform to educate and motivate its communities and professions throughout a collaborative process.
