General Assembly Mid-Year Meeting

“Liberating Black Minds”

January 15 – 17, 2016

Fisk University – Nashville, Tennessee

We are gearing up for the General Assembly Mid-Year Meeting to be held during Martin Luther King, Jr weekend at Fisk University in Nashville Tennessee. ABPsi is only as strong as our members so we are looking forward to having you come out and join in the important work we will engage in to strengthen our communities.

ABPsi Conference Day!

“Liberating Black Minds”

Friday, January 15, 2016

We are excited to offer a day of information and training around current issues relevant in the Black community addressing Why Black Lives Matter. The day will include Continuing Education Credits with an opportunity to not only learn but to be a part of solutions we can offer our communities. Click the link to register for this powerful event. Check back for guest speakers and specific topics in November!

General Assembly Work Days!

“A Call to Action to Heal and Restore Black Communities”

Saturday & Sunday, January 16-17, 2016

The General Assembly is getting back to its roots! During these two General Assembly work days the following issues will be explored in depth: Mental Health Interventions in Community Policing, Black Veterans Mental Health Service Delivery, & African Centered Rites of Passage Programs. This great opportunity is at no cost and will allow participants to share their expertise, thoughts and ideas on how to address these issues in the Black community. This weekend will produce tangible products that will move ABPsi into the forefront on issues. Please register (free) to complete this important work. Click here for a description of the working sessions.
